About DOCLANDS

Presented by the California Film Institute, the inaugural DocLands Documentary Film Festival brings compelling stories and the provocative insights behind them to Marin County, California May 10 - 14, 2017. Expanding upon the exchange of ideas and inspiration through public screenings, engaged conversations and grassroots networking events, DocLands aims to build an active, involved, fully supportive community around documentary film, dedicated to initiating connections and partnerships that will illuminate and invigorate the business and art of non-fiction filmmakers.

About the California Film Institute

The non-profit California Film Institute celebrates and promotes film by presenting the annual Mill Valley Film Festival and DocLands Documentary Film Festival, exhibiting film year-round at the Christopher B. Smith Rafael Film Center, and building the next generation of filmmakers and audiences through CFI Education. It relies on the generosity of its community to sustain these core programs. The invaluable support of our sponsors, foundations, and individual donors ensures our continued success. For more information please visit www.cafilm.org.

Supporters

CFI is proud to acknowledge Genuine Article Pictures, the Nancy P. and Richard K. Robbins Family Foundation, Marin Community Foundation, Bellam Self Storage and Boxes and The EACH Foundation for their generous support of DocLands. We are also fortunate to have the support of the following Sponsors: Ed and Kori Anne, Chip and Jennifer Lutton, Rocco and Athena Capobianco, Triplepoint Capital and Caroline Crawford Labe.
