FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CALIFORNIA FILM INSTITUTE'S 5th ANNUAL DOCLANDS DOCUMENTARY FILM FESTIVAL
ANNOUNCES 2021 DATES, MAY 6 – 17, 2021
SUBMISSIONS OPEN WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 2020

SAN RAFAEL, CA – Mark Fishkin, Founder/Executive Director of the California Film Institute and Founder/Director of the internationally known Mill Valley Film Festival, announced today that the 5th annual DocLands Documentary Film Festival will be held virtually Friday, May 7 – Sunday, May 16, 2021.

With the extended dates of May 7-16, the 2021 Festival will reflect and build upon the structure and innovations introduced during the outbreak of COVID-19 in 2020, while being responsive and respectful of the public health situation. This flexibility means planning for an accessible and inclusive virtual Festival, with the possibility of limited in-theater screenings available while maintaining virtual access to those unable or unwilling to travel. We will continue to deliver a Festival that engages our members and patrons, supports filmmakers, and our valued partners, while also serving to bolster the documentary film community.

No matter what form screenings and conversations take moving forward, DocLands encourages the exchange of ideas and inspiration through public screenings, engaged conversations, in-development documentary project pitching, and grassroots networking events. All programs exist to build an active, involved, fully supportive community around documentary film dedicated to initiating connections and partnerships that will illuminate and invigorate the business and art of non-fiction filmmaking.

Submissions for the 2021 Festival opened, Wednesday, November 4, 2020 for new works in documentary features (60+ minutes), mid length films, and shorts. Filmmakers can submit a film for consideration via upload through FilmFreeway. No DVDs or external links will be considered. Filmmakers are responsible for providing an exhibition-quality file or, if in-theatre screenings are possible, a DCP or 35mm print only.

- NOVEMBER 4, 2020 – SUBMISSIONS OPEN
- FEBRUARY 1, 2021 – EARLY DEADLINE
- FEBRUARY 12, 2021 – FINAL DEADLINE

About DocLands

Presented by the California Film Institute, DocLands Documentary Film Festival brings compelling stories and the provocative insights behind them to Marin County, California. Expanding upon the exchange of ideas and inspiration through public screenings and engaged conversations, DocLands aims to bring diverse communities together for dialogue, and to build an active, involved, fully supportive community around documentary film, dedicated to initiating connections and partnerships that will illuminate and invigorate the business and art of non-fiction filmmakers.

About California Film Institute

The California Film Institute (CFI) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization dedicated to celebrating and promoting film as art and education with a diverse series of annual programs, including the presentation of the internationally acclaimed Mill Valley Film Festival, celebrating its 43rd year in 2020 and the documentary film festival DocLands; building the next generation of young filmmakers and audiences through CFI Education, featuring a broad range of activities, screenings, Q&A sessions, and seminars with top international and local filmmakers and industry professionals, as well as a rich program of classes and hands-on-workshops for all Bay Area students and lifetime learners. Year-round, CFI acts as a film-centric town hall with a varied calendar of programming at the Christopher B. Smith Rafael Film Center, one of the leading non-profit independent theaters in the US, celebrating and promoting the art of storytelling through film. CFI is also the majority owner of the Sequoia Theater in Mill Valley, California. Additionally, through CFI Releasing, a national non-profit film distribution initiative, CFI enables filmmakers and sales agents to collaborate with U.S. independent exhibitors, giving nationwide audiences access to quality independent film and promoting this work as a valuable artistic and educational medium conveying different visions, viewpoints, and cultural perspectives. CFI relies on the generosity of its community to sustain these core programs. The invaluable support of our members, sponsors, foundations, and individual donors ensures our continued success.
